

The University of the District of Columbia-GED Testing Center's Registration & Testing Checklist

- You must complete the 2002 series Official GED Practice Test.
- You must submit the Application for GED Testing and all supporting materials to the GED Testing Center by the close of the pre-registration process (Seven business days prior to the test date(s)). Please contact the GED Testing Center for a listing of these materials.
- You must submit all applicable fees to the University of the District of Columbia's Cashier's Office. Please click here (Link to http://www.dcadultliteracy.org/ged_exams.asp) for a complete listing of these fees.
- You must bring the copy of the receipt to the GED Testing Center after payment is made.
- You must arrive at the test site by 8:30 am each day of testing.
- You must bring your government issued ID to each test administration.
- You must notify the GED Testing Center immediately if your address changes.

GED applicants can now pay for GED Testing services, prior to coming to the center. All forms (Application for GED Testing, GED Transcript and Certificate Requests, Accommodations Requests) are available online at http://www.dcadultliteracy.org/ged_transcripts.asp. Applicants may download the forms and take the completed document directly to the University of the District of Columbia's cashier's office for payment. The cashier's office is located at 4200 Connecticut Avenue, building 39, room 201. Money orders and cash are the only forms of payment accepted. It is the applicants' responsibility to familiarize themselves with the GED Testing Center's application procedures and all applicable fees. All Fees are nonrefundable and non-transferable.

For questions regarding test registration and/or testing procedures, please contact the GED Testing Center at (202)274-7173, or at GED@dcadultliteracy.org. The Center is located at 4200 Connecticut Avenue, NW, building 52, room B07.